	Approved For Release 2002/08/07 Edix-RIA 200457R004700530001-8 25X1	7 ' 1
	CLASSIFICATION STORE DEPORT NO	ן '
	Soviet Zone of Germany REPORT NO.
TOPICA	infield and Seaplane Base of Bug Tale of Russen	den makke kalenda di di
	25844
	25X1X1 25X1A
DATE OF CO	NTENT 30 January 1950 25X1A
	DATE PREPARED 29 March 1950
PAGES	1ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMARKS_		ur
25X1X
	The airfield of Bug (N 55/P 57) was unoccupied. Only ruins were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began.
X1A	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had
X1A	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.*
X1A	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press
X1A	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It, is assumed from this report that the newspaper information
X1A	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mantioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed.
X1A	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It, is assumed from this report that the newspaper information were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It, is assumed from this report that the newspaper information were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It, is assumed from this report that the newspaper information were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It, is assumed from this report that the newspaper information were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It, is assumed from this report that the newspaper information were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It is assumed from this report that the newspaper information is Zrue. Pecument No. No Comment is hereby regraded to Details 1855.
	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Draneke (N 55/F 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mantioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It is assumed from this report that the newspaper information is /true. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the
	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/P 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It is assumed from this report that the newspaper information is /crue. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the
	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/F 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It is assumed from this report that the newspaper information is firue. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the X1A X1A	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/F 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It is assumed from this report that the newspaper information is true. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
	were seen. No guard details or motor vehicle traffic were noted. Former airfield workers and residents of Dranske (N 55/F 58) stated that clearing work at the field had stopped about October 1949, when the bad weather period began. Comment: The clearing work mentioned was reported in November 1949.* No such work has been observed since. According to press reports of January 1950, the airfield is being reconstructed. It is assumed from this report that the newspaper information is true. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.	